The old Register Book of Fenny-Stratford Parish is 13 inches high by 9¼ inches wide, and contains forty-nine parchment leaves and six paper leaves in calf covered boards, fastening with two brass clasps. On the front cover is a leather label, inscribed in gilt capitals "F. Stratford Register 1730," and on the other cover is a similar label, inscribed "Given by Mr. Gosling, Bookseller." Inside the front cover is written "It is desired, That a lose Leaf, "or peice of Paper be laid in this Register every year: "And that the Entry's of the Births, Burials, and Marriages "be inserted first in that as they shall happen. And that "at the end of each respective Year the same be wrote "over at once in a fair hand: And that after the Entrys "of the Births or Burials (which are entitled throughout "the Book) the Marriages if any be placed at the Bottom "of each Year under the Title of Nomina Conjugatorum."

Sept. 28, 1764. N.B. William Newman buried in the Chappell and the fees were £3-3-0 mortuary included—the Clerks fee 14 shillings, exclusive of tolling the bell &c. and exclusive of the above £3-3-0.

April 21, 1768. Ann Newman, wife of the sd. William Newman, was buried in the Chappell and paid £3-3-0 including Mortuary, the same as above for Clerks fees. By Ralph Leycester Minister of the sd. Chappell.

Undecimo die Febr 173⁵ prædictâ parcellâ Terræ Pascuæ vocat Parsons Peice, una cum Messuagio et Aliis Terris (annui valoris octodecim Librarum) alienatâ vendita et assignatâ Ministro Capellæ St. Martini Stratfordiensis et successoribus ejus in perpetuum; exinde cessit solutio viginti solidorum sic, ut præfertur facta; ministro nihilominus obstricto ad dictam concionem habendam (Ad quam Arctius tenetur ratione dotationis ita confirmatæ) nisi secum dispensetur per nominationem Alterius cujus piam a Donatore sive Patrono ad hoc munus constituti: Quem penes jus concionatorem deputandi semper fuit.

Oratio habita Domino Episcopo Lincoln in coemiterio, cum se accinxerat ad peragendum munus consecrationis nostræ Capellæ.

Right Reverend Father in God,

We Humbly begg leave to present to your Lordshipp the State of the Town of Stratford in the County of Buckingham. It had formerly an handsom Spatious Chapell consisting of Two or Three Isles with an Embattled Tower in which were said to be Four Bells. In this Chapell, which was scituate in the Parish of Blechley, were Visitations frequently held for the Archdeaconry of Buckingham. But this being Sacrilegiously Demolished to the great detriment of the Inhabitants of the said Town of Stratford. They have been for many years Destitute of a place for Divine Worship, and necessitated to come above a mile and Quarter to Church: By reason of which unhappy circumstances: Elderly and Infirm people have been prevented hearing Divine Service and Sermons, whilst the Younger sort have made it a pretense to frequent no Worship at all: And others have resorted to Schismatical Teachers and Seperated Themselves from the Communion of our Most Excellent Church. All which has tended to the scandal of Religion in Generall and Profanation of the Lord's Day in Particular.

To put a stop to these bad consequences and take away so just a Reproach (having procured the Ground whereon our Former Chapell stood) we have thro: the Liberality of several noble and generous Benefactors been Enabled to Erect & finish a Decent Chapell & enclose a Cœmety: And in order to provide for a Minister to officiate therein: Wee have Endowed it in some Measure our selves, being thereunto excited by the Encouragement given us in obtaining the Bounty of our late excellent Queen Anne.

And having thus prepared matters By the concurrence and Asistance of our Worthy Rector, Mr. Archdeacon Dr. Martin Benson, wee are now become Earnest Petitioners to Yr. Lordshipp that this structure so Erected & Established may by Yr. Office & Ministry be seperated from all common & profane uses & appropriated to the (Glory and) Worshipp of Almighty God who has of His great mercy & Goodness thus restored to us the place of old Dedicated to His Honour And put it into the Hearts of His Servants to Rebuild it.

Sententia promulgata per Dictum Episcopum post Consecrationis Officium peractum et Matutinas preces habitas; per quam Capella Nostra declaratur esse Capella—in Futuram, et muniter privilegiis et Turibus in Caeteris Ecclesiis usitatis.

“CURATES” AND VICARS SINCE 1730.

This list is confessedly imperfect, as no record exists; it is compiled from the Registers, Cole MSS., and information supplied by old inhabitants.

Samuel Clark, M.A., Oriel Coll., 1731 to June, 1735.

Thomas Warrender, of Edinburgh, to 1737.

Richard Eyre, Vicar of Whaddon, and }
Edmund Smith, Vicar of Stantonbury, } served to 1738.

Christopher Golding, Fellow of New Coll., 1738.

William Clifton, B.A., of Balliol.

Boughton Fody, 1740.

John Fletcher, 1745-1760.

Ralph Leycester, B.A., 27 August, 1761.

Wyat, Francis.

Thomas Willis, Rector of Bletchley.

W. H. Barry.

William Carter.

William Pinnock, Rector of Great Woolstone, 1787-1801.

John Steward.

. . . . Winter.

Thomas Pym Williamson, 1852.

Charles William Barnett-Clarke, 1861.

George W. Corker, 1864.

. . . . Close, of Edmund Hall, Oxford (in charge for a time).

Ernest Villars Hoare, M.A., Jesus Coll., Cantab., 1876-81.

Francis de Lacy White, B.A., Camb., 1881-3.

Alfred Henry Barrow, M.A., Merton Coll., Oxford, 1883.

Charles Thomas Gillett, M.A., Queen's Coll., Oxford, 1893.

Henry Francis Oliver, M.A., Exeter Coll., Oxford, 1898.

Alfred Cassin Elgar, M.A., Worcester Coll., Oxford, 1905.

Trevor Martin Middleton Nesbit, M.A. (T.C.D.), 1906.

Before the building of the “Chapell,” the details of which are set forth in the first few pages of the Register, Fenny Stratford formed part of the parish of Bletchley. It was by the influence and exertions of the celebrated antiquary, Browne Willis. Esq., D.C.L. and F.S.A., Lord of the Manor, that Fenny Stratford became a separate ecclesiastical parish in 1730; before that date all baptisms, etc., took place at Bletchley, and for years after 1730 the Bletchley Register contains entries relating to Fenny Stratford people. In petition dated 1725, the inhabitants state, ". . . An ancient market town and great thoroughfare situate on the principal road of England; that many strangers are obliged to lodge at our inns, which are the chief support of our town."

The road referred to is that going from London to Chester, better known, perhaps, as Watling Street. Owing to their situation on this historic highway ($44\frac{1}{2}$ miles from London), the Parish Registers of both Bletchley and Fenny Stratford abound with references to wayfarers and travellers of all classes; these records are thereby rendered of much more than local interest.

Donation to the Poor of Fenny Stratford.

Memorandum: " William Underwood, late of Newport Pagnell, Bucks, Gentleman, in his last will and testament proved February 28, 1798, bequeathed to George Cooch and Richard White, of Newport Pagnell aforesaid, the sum of one hundred pounds upon trust, that they should pay the same to the Rev. the Minister and Chapel-Warden of Fenny Stratford, upon farther and special trust that they the said Minister and Chapel-Warden for the time being and their successors for ever should lay out the yearly interest of the said one hundred pounds in the purchase of bread and distribute the same the 1st day of January in every year in the Chapel to the poor inhabitants of the Hamlet in such manner as they the said Minister and Chapel-Warden shall in their discretion think proper."

Entered this 14 April 1801. William Pinnock, Assistant Curate.

Resolved unanimously that such poor inhabitants of good character as by their honest labour and frugal industry keep themselves from being burdensome to the parish are primary objects of this Charity.

William Pinnock, Minister.

Thomas Day, Chapel Warden.

The Security is in the Chapel Chest.

A Digest of the Parish Registers

WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER,

Issued by the Committee of Parish Registers,

By Authority of the WORCESTER DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.

This Digest has been prepared under the direction of a Committee appointed at the Diocesan Conference, held at Birmingham, in 1896, and has been completed from the original Returns supplied by the Incumbents of the Parishes within the Diocese. The dates when each Volume of Registers commence and end, the number of leaves, material on which they are written, and the size and general condition, are all clearly stated under each parish.

Added to all this useful information is a table showing for what years in every parish the Bishops' Transcripts, previous to 1700, are now in existence in Edgar Tower, Worcester.

As only a limited number of copies has been printed, early application is necessary to secure a copy.

A Supplement to How to Write the History of a Family,

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted. Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.
